OFFICE NO. 62, WALNUT STREET, PHILADEL-Incorporated in 1841. CAPITAL STOCK $250,000.

CAPITAL STOCK $250,000.

Rates of Premium reduced Twenty-five per cent.

Persons insured in this Company for the whole term of life participate in the annual division of profits which will be paid in scrip or by bonds added to the policy.

Life Insurance upon the principle adopted by the Company is founded upon the principle of contribution in the shape of annual, semi-annual, or quarterly premium or dues to a common fund, proportionate to the amount insured, out of which the company pay a stipulated sum on the death of the assured, to the person for whose benefit the insurance is effected. Thus each person insuring in this company, by contributing a small portion of his income or carnings, effects a sure provision for the wants and necessities of his family after they are deprived of that support which, whilst living, he was enabled to provide for them by his exertion.

After a thorough investigation of the different systems adopted in Europe and America, and of the rates of premium charged, this company have reduced the annual premium or quarterly dues twenty-five per cent., and will receive the premium annually, semi-annually, or quarterly, as may be preferred, under a firm enoviction that premium or quarterly dues twenty-five per cent., and will receive the premium annually, semi-annually, or quarterly, as may be preferred, under a firm conviction that the exigencies of the company will never exceed and seldom require the premium charged by this company, to enable it to meet all its engagements, which reduction will leave a large margin for sensons of unusual sickness and death among its members. This company preferring to reduce the premium at once to an amount more nearly approximating the actual necessities of the company, than to adopt the system of premium notes for a portion of the premium which is attended with so many disadvantages. Some of the peculiar advantages of this company are, 1. A reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the annual premium charged.

We beg to announce to the public that we have entered into connexion with the heaviest transportation house on the Isthmus, who are bound to us to transport our goods from Chagres to Panama, in advance of all other expresses, and having made arrangements with the U. S. Mail and all other steamers on the Pacific, for the carriage of our goods, we are prepared to guarantee their delivery in San Francisco within a specified time.

In addition to the superior qualities of the line, for the transaction of Merchandise, its manifest advantages over the U. S. Mail and all other competitors, in the transportation of letters and parcels between the Pacific and Atlantic States, are well known and already generally appreciated by the public. The value of a mercantile letter, delivered by us three or four days in advance of all other competition, being properly estimated.

We have also established agencies in GUAYAQUIL, CALLAO, and VALPARAISO, for which ports, and other cities on the South American coast, we are prepared to receive LETTERS and PARCELS, which will be promptly despatched to their destination by our agent in Panama.

Amherst College, Dec. 25, 1848.

Mr. Robert Scars—Dear Sir: I have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much interest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the rescarch it must have cost you to obtain so many fine illustrations, while you have an active superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.

Respectfully and sincerely, your obliged servant, EDWARD HITCHCOCK.

LEVERETT'S LATIN LEXICON,

The present edition of this standard and favorite Latin Lexicon has been much improved by the transfer to its columns of the classical distinctions of Latin words, as given in the Lexicon of Dr. Wm. Freund, of Germany, and translated by Riddle. The classical degree of each word is indicated by a figure; for example, a word without a figure is fully classical and Ciceronion; with the figures 1, 2, and 3, words are classical only in the first, second, &c., degrees; and this distinction the student perceives at a glance. The Etymological Index, also from Freund's Lexicon, has been incorporated into the present edition of Leverett, and will be found a valuable acquisition. While transferring these notes and marks, catalogues were carefully kept of the words found in each Lexicon, which were not found in the other. On comparing these catalogues, it was found that the value and importance of the additional words found in Leverett, so far as a knowledge of the Latin language is concerned, very far exceeds that of those found in Riddle's Freund. The extensive use of Leverett's Lexicon in all parts of the country, and the preference which has been universally given to it over all similar works, render fits recommendation superfluous; but attention to this new edition is respectfully invited, as being still more worthy than its predecesors of the distinguished favor which the work has hitherto received.

Blackwood's Entheren Magazine.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical; "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" over its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its view on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate title. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretofere issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediated the content of the combination of the combi packets and steamers, a very extensive assortment of French, German, English, Italian, and India.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE,

WING to the late revolutions and counter-revolutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet," the teading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapere, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Wheever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to eail renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers.
